OTHER EXPERIENCE

Kaye, Scholer, Fierman, Hayes & Handler, LLP, New York, New York
Litigation Associate, May 1997 to June 2000

Litigation focused on securities regulation and commercial transactions, including an NASD arbitration concerning the suitability of investments in inverse-floaters by a not-for-profit entity and litigation concerning allegations of the unsuitability of investments in foreign currency markets; fraud in connection with a securitization; fraud in connection with a corporate acquisition; and breach of contract and tortious interference claims arising from an employment dispute. Drafted briefs, pleadings, affidavits, discovery requests and responses, and witness scripts. Conducted and defended depositions. Prepared lay and expert witnesses for depositions and trials. Participated in mediations and a trial.

Securities and Exchange Commission, Division of Enforcement, New York, New York
Senior Counsel, Sept. 1996 - May 1997; Staff Attorney, Sept. 1993 - August 1996

Analyzed and applied the federal securities laws as well as the rules of the NYSE and NASD to a host of investigations and litigations involving broker-dealers, issuers, corporate officers and directors, and other regulated entities. Focus included “suitability” and “know your customer” rules; mark-ups; reporting and books and records provisions; failure to supervise; insider trading; control-person’s liability; sale of unregistered, non-exempt securities; and Investment Advisers and Investment Company Acts. Planned and conducted civil discovery. Drafted pleadings, discovery motions, pre-trial briefs, and settlement documents.

Securities and Exchange Commission, Division of Investment Management
Legal Intern, Summer 1992

Drafted research memoranda analyzing and applying the Investment Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act to allegations of touting and false disclosures in investment advisory publications.

New York County District Attorney's Office, New York, New York
Summer Intern, Frauds Bureau, Summer 1991

Drafted motion responses and research memoranda focusing on white collar crime issues, including breach of fiduciary duty, self-dealing and false statements. Prepared a condensed guide analyzing key provisions of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

Depository Trust Company, New York, New York
Participant Services Representative, September 1987 - July 1990

Served as member-banks’ account administrator to facilitate their capital market transactions. Actively interfaced with various regulatory and compliance entities; advised DTC participants of new regulatory policies and securities clearing procedures; and facilitated training.
