

OUR MISSION

Evolve502 is a public-private partnership working to ensure that every child in Louisville is prepared for college, career and a productive, successful life.

Per our mission, we will provide the caring, belief, access, and supports each student needs to achieve and succeed and will work to remove and mitigate the systemic barriers of poverty and institutional racism.

OUR SCHOLARSHIP GIVES STUDENTS OPTIONS

Students can pursue a variety of education tracks to pursue the career they want.

Where do Evolve502 Students Live

Evolve502's program serves nearly 600 students from the JCPS class of 2021 from every part of Jefferson County.

(We are working to get maps reflective of State House and Senate District lines, and thought this would offer a useful snapshot)

OUR GOAL

Financial contributions support students on the path to postsecondary education.

We reached our phase II goal of $20 million in the summer of 2021, with generous support from donors, foundations, businesses across Louisville and Louisville Metro Government.

Our overall goal is to raise $50 million.
