Per sign the cost will be 178.88. This includes all labor and material to fabricate and install each sign. If you wish to include a photo please send us a decent image. Having or not having a photo added does not change the price. If your request is approved, just keep us up to date concerning any unveiling ceremony. Hope this helps!

This won't be a problem. It may be the 29th before we install them, too ensure the cover stays on until the unveiling. Signs are $ 178.88 apiece. This includes all labor and material for fabrication and installation of each.

Mr. Weathers, please supply Signs & Markings with a COST CODE/CENTER for billing and we'll get this going.

Samuel Moore began his love affair with basketball while attending Madison Junior High School in Louisville. A quick study, Moore learned the basics and was on the fast track to stardom. He enrolled at Central High School and from 1950-52, led the team to two Kentucky High School Athletic League state championships and one runner-up finish during his three-year run. Moore was named the state tournament's most valuable player each year and also earned all-district, all-regional and all-state honors during his three-year run. In 1952, Moore led the Yellowjackets to the National Negro League championship under legendary coach William Kearn. He was also selected as the most valuable player in the first integrated games played in the state when Central played Flaget and St. Xavier. After graduation, Moore attended Tennessee State University where he lettered all four years and led the Tigers to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) title, a first for a team with African-American athletes. After graduating college, Moore went on to star professionally with the Harlem Globetrotters and Harlem Magicians. (Adapted from the 2010 KHSSA Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony)

Career Highlights

- Led Central High School to three State Championships, 1950, 51, 52
- Led Central High School to Negro National Championship in 1952
- Led State in scoring 1951-52, with 24 points per game, 38-3 win/lost record
- Named All-District, All-Region and All-State for all three years
- Voted MVP in KHSAL State Tournament, two years
- Selected MVP in first integrated basketball games in state between Central and Flaget and St. Xavier
- Lettered 4 years at Tennessee State University (TSU), 1953-56
- TSU team won N.A.I.A. National Title (first minority team)
- Played professionally for Harlem Globetrotters and Harlem Magicians
- First Central High School Player to have Jersey retired
- Coached Basketball at Lincoln Institute, Manly Jr. High School and Noe Middle School
- Taught school for 45 years; 33 years as P.E. Teacher (retired in 2007)
- Recreation Supervisor at Southwick Community Center for 45+ years

CW Green,

Charles signed an appropriation request for NDF funds to Metro Parks for a community event at Southwick Community Center and Russell Lee Park and a request for NDF funds to Public Works for honorary street signs for Samuel Moore. I need an email from you giving him authorization to sign on your behalf. You may respond to this email with your approval for him to sign on your behalf.

Thank you,

Jess
