JCPS students win Ken-Ducky Derby Art Contest

Two JCPS students won top honors in the 2014 Ken-Ducky Derby Art Contest, sponsored by Harbor House of Louisville, a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering the lives of adults with disabilities.

Mirielle Pangan, a junior at Pleasure Ridge Park (PRP) High, created a design that is featured on the official T-chirt for the 11th Annual Ken-Ducky Derby Festival (Sun., Sept. 28, at Louisville Waterfront Park). Mirielle received a $100 savings bond courtesy of Republic Bank. Her graphic design teacher at PRP is Denise Webb.

Alexandria Brown, a Rangeland Elementary student last year and now a student at Newburg Middle, designed the winning poster and received a pizza party. Her art teacher at Rangeland was Christa Hudson.

The contest, which was open to students in public, private, and purchial schools, received more than 200 submissions. Winners were selected by a panel of three judges, which included professionals from the art world as well as corporate and civic leaders who support Harbor House.

2. On Sunday, September 28, the 11th annual Ken-Ducky Derby will take place in downtown Louisville on the wharf along the Ohio riverfront. This event is sure to delight everyone in your family: who wouldn't love watching thousands of ducks float down the Ohio River toward a finish line, and hoping that one of yours crosses first! Adopt a duck and help Harbor House continue their great work for the lives of people living with disabilities. 13,332 ducks have been adopted so far; their goal is to get 23,000 ducks adopted for the race. Adopt one duck for $5, or packages of ducks for $25-$100. The race is from 12pm-5pm; lots of family fun will start at 12pm, including live music, a food court, games and more. At 4pm, the ducks will be dropped into the Ohio River for the race; cheer your ducks on to victory!
