SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

Vision Statement

Historic Old Louisville seeks to be a vibrant and diverse community that welcomes all who call this place home or visit us to enjoy our rich architectural and arts heritage.

Mission Statement

To advocate, promote, and protect Old Louisville's historic architecture and streetscapes within a diverse neighborhood of residents and businesses while advancing artistic and cultural events to build community.

Goals

To be the official voice of Old Louisville, serving as a strong advocate for a safe, clean, healthy community where all can flourish.

To preserve and protect one of the nation's oldest historic preservation districts of Victorian mansions, as well as its distinctive 19th and early 20th century homes and landscapes.

To encourage heritage tourism for enrichment and educational purposes.

To promote artistic and educational events within this culturally diverse neighborhood, thereby building community and fostering cooperation.

To promote neighborhood revitalization and business development.

Services: In meeting those goals, the OLNC provides the following services:

- 1) Chairman, Vice Chairman and Executive Director serve in an outreach capacity advocating for the community on many levels.
- 2) The OLNC serves as a guardian of the historic preservation district and advocates for the preservation of these historic buildings through the work of its property improvement committee.
- 3) To encourage heritage tourism the OLNC operates the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center in Central Park for community use and as a visitors center. It also offers the Historic Old Louisville Walking Tour which is a guided tour of the Victorian mansion district and a walking tour booklet for self-guided tours. It is working closely with the Louisville Convention and Visitors Bureau to increase heritage tourism. Each December the OLNC sponsors the Old Louisville Holiday Home Tour which is an educational/enrichment tour of the interiors of about 10 Victorian mansions and townhomes.
- 4) To promote artistic and cultural events which build community and foster cooperation, the OLNC launched a new performance series in 2016 called Old Louisville LIVE. This series features a variety of performers at the C. Douglas Ramey Amphitheater in Central Park. All performances are free and open to the public. OLNC also produces the Victorian Tales of Terror in October which is part tour/part theater and immerses attendees in a Victorian-themed ghost play set in the St. James and Belgravia Court area.
- 5) To promote neighborhood revitalization and business development, the OLNC has been working with the community and business interests to find ways to promote Old Louisville to families and young professionals and encourage home ownership in the area. Creating vibrancy through activities such as the Old Louisville LIVE series serves that purpose.

SECTION 5 – PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

The Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center serves a multi-fold purpose. First, it serves as a community center where the neighborhood associations can hold their monthly meetings. OLCN committees also meet at the center on a regular basis, including the property improvement committee, Zoning and Land Use committee, Victorian Tales of Terror committee, and the Holiday Home Tour committee. Other nonprofit organizations also hold their meetings at the center, such as Kentucky Shakespeare which have rehearsals at the center. The Old Louisville Arts Council, a group of community partners meets at the center bimonthly to work on ways to cross promote and collaborate on events. Receptions are held at the center, often at no cost, for example neighborhood associations have held parties, Kentucky Shakespeare holds receptions before their plays, the Louisville Ballet held a reception before their new outdoor performance series in Central Park, and the Jazz in Central Park holds a reception before their event. Classes are held at the center. In 2016, there were classes on: Tai Chi, landscaping, historic home restoration, and first time home buyers. In 2017, a stained glass class workshop is being held, with plans for a yoga class and other topics of interest. In addition, we are exploring possible Old Louisville LIVE performances of classical music at the center. The Center also serves as a gateway to Old Louisville for visitors. The Historic Old Louisville Walking Tour, a 75 minute guided tour of the Victorian Mansion district is operated out of the Center May-Sept. We offer a self-guided tour booklet for free to the visiting public. We offer information on area restaurants, museums, sites of interest, the universities, performances in Central Park, downtown points of interest as well as maps.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

Metro funds would be used to support the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center. As the Kentucky Department of Tourism recently noted, tourism is a must-have tool in the tool box for any community that wants to grow and have a positive economic impact for its citizens. Supporting the work of developing heritage tourism by the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center is important. Outreach efforts are accomplished in many ways. Staffing the center with tour guides and personnel who can greet visitors, offer them an overview of Old Louisville and its historic preservation district costs the OLCN about $21,580. The administrative assistant also writes the e-newsletter for the community and helps with all events.

The OLCN is working to create a "purposeful" website. The oldlouisville.org was established about two years ago, but now we are working with an expert to optimize its usefulness, bringing attention to Old Louisville and its many assets, developing heritage tourism, and promoting Old Louisville events. We are trying to drive traffic from our social media platforms to the website; this information can be quantitatively tracked. The costs for the website management by Force Media is $2350 per year. Metro Funds would cover most of this expense because it supports all aspects of the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center.

The OLCN is a nonprofit community-based organization that has a facility use agreement with Metro Parks for the use of the building in Central Park. It does not pay rent or utilities. But Metro Parks does not cover the use of the phone or internet service, we must pay for it. We have recently, cut the costs for telephone and internet to about $1600 per year. Metro funds would cover this expense.

Finally, $350 of Metro funds can be used to cover the annual lease of a printer to support all the work at the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center.

LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT FUND APPLICATION

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

The Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center serves as a community center for the 12,000 residents of Old Louisville. The 16 neighborhood associations use the center for meetings and events. Attendance can be tracked for each meeting and provided to the administrative assistant who can keep a running tally. The Old Louisville Neighborhood Council is now sponsoring events such as Old Louisville LIVE, Holiday Home Tour, and the Victorian Tales of Terror which all now operate their ticketing sites at the Center or serve as a focal point during events for information or event support.

In 2015 we had a total of 1,890 visitors. In 2016, we had 3,005. We anticipate increased attendance in 2017 as we improve marketing efforts and outreach to group tour companies.

The Old Louisville LIVE events are projected to reach about 8000-10,000 attendees who will come to Central Park and can use the Center. Volunteers will take a tally of each event's attendance. Surveys will be offered and the results compiled at the end of the series season.

The Old Louisville Holiday Home Tour typically has about 2000 attendees which all come to the Visitors Center. The Victorian Tales of Terror has about 1000 attendees which will come to the Center. All ticketing can be measured through Square transactions. Data will be compiled at the end of each event.

When serving as a gateway for visitors, we track the number of guests and where they are coming from. This measurable data is compiled each year.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

The Old Louisville Neighborhood Council works collaboratively with many community partners. OLNC spearheaded the Old Louisville Arts Council which includes: University of Louisville, Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, Kentucky College of Art and Design, Filson Historical Society, Conrad Caldwell House Museum, Asia Institute Crane House, Louisville Free Public Library, St. James Court Art Show, Garvin Gate Blues Festival and Vault 1031. We work collaboratively with many of these groups, such as Kentucky Shakespeare to use the stage in the C. Douglas Ramey Amphitheater for the Old Louisville LIVE series. We raise funds for the Louisville Ballet/KSF "Shakespeare in Dance" as part of Old Louisville LIVE. We welcome KSF to hold rehearsals, meetings and receptions in the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood and Visitors Center. The Center was also the site of a reception for donors for the Louisville Ballet performance in Central Park. The U of L School of Music works with us to provide performers for Old Louisville LIVE and has offered performers to be held the Center. The Conrad Caldwell House Museum works with us to provide combination tours with the museum and the walking tour. CCHM also collaborates with us on the Holiday Home Tour offering the Victorian Tea as part of a joint ticketing effort. They also collaborate on the Victorian Tales of Terror offering space for an event. We work with the St. James Court Art Show by offering the Center as the site of their high school artists award showcase during the three day art show event each October. The Center has also been the host of the preview party revealing the St. James Court Art Show poster for the year.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.
