REQUEST

Conditional Use Permit to allow short term rental of a dwelling unit that is not the primary residence of the owner in an R-4 zoning district

CASE SUMMARY / BACKGROUND

The applicant proposes to conduct a short-term rental of a dwelling unit at the subject property. As the applicant does not live on site, the short-term rental would be the sole use of the property and a Conditional Use Permit is required.

The property is located on Lynnhall Court between US 42 and River Road. PVA lists site development as a single-family dwelling with a partially-finished basement and attached two-car garage, built in 1973. According to the applicant, the residence includes four bedrooms. LDC regulations permit up to 12 guests.

The property owner lives in Prospect and will be employing a professional property manager.

The site can accommodate two vehicles in the garage and five on the driveway. According to LDC regulations, the street frontage is insufficient to support on-street parking; it is also prohibited by HOA rules.

STAFF FINDINGS

The applicant has provided the required documentation, has held a neighborhood meeting and has been informed of the standards and regulations specific to use of the dwelling unit for short term rentals.

Based upon the information in the staff report and the testimony and evidence provided at the public hearing, the Board of Zoning Adjustment must determine if the proposal meets the standards established in the LDC for a Conditional Use Permit.

TECHNICAL REVIEW

There are no outstanding technical issues.
