A motion was made by Committee Member Benson, seconded by Committee Member Parker, that this Resolution be recommended for approval.

The following spoke:

- Tameka Laird, Office of Resilience and Community Services
- Vice Chair Kevin Triplett

The following was discussed:

- $81,000.00 in funding will be used for technical assistant and training for the new Navigators Program
- Resilience and Community Services will be partnering with Bloomberg, City Finance Foundation, Wells Fargo and AT Mortgage Chase
- The Financial Navigators Program is designed to help residents deal with the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic
- Working and partnering with others to provide free public services for all Louisville residents
- The two Financial Navigators are long time counselors, they cannot provide financial assistance
- The Financial Navigators will answer phones, provide financial structure and guidance, identify immediate action steps and make referrals to other services
- The money allocated is for the two Financial Navigators

The motion carried by a voice vote and the Resolution was sent to the Consent Calendar.
