The following spoke to this item:

- Chair Person Green
- Council Member Hollander
- Council Member Arthur
- Council President James
- Chief Erika Shields

The following was discussed:

- There was a discussion regarding a top-to-bottom review of the Louisville Metro Police Department by Hillard Heintze.
- There was a discussion regarding Hillard Heintze's recommendations for the Department that are categorized in twelve domains for improvements and/or changes.
- There are a total of 102 recommendations total that are outlined in the twelve domains.
- The majority of the recommendations are within the planning and development or in-process stages for implementation.
- Louisville Metro Police Department is reviewing each recommendation for its feasibility and possible implementation that is inline with overall department goals.
- There was a discussion regarding the manner to formulate the most effective and efficient process to accomplish sustainable achievement and improvement.
- There was a discussion regarding the fact that several recommendations require collaborations with other departments and offices, such as the Office of the Inspector General, etc.
- There was a discussion regarding the current/accumulated traffic stop data, Public Integrity Unit (PIU) cases, and arrest case statistics.
- There were several questions regarding narcotics detectives throwing snowballs at West Louisville residents. There is currently limited information on this incident, however, the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) is currently conducting an investigation.
- There were several questions regarding how many officers were involved in the snowball incident and whether they are on desk duty presently.
- There were several questions regarding the Louisville Metro Police Department's dashboard web site.
- There were several questions regarding review of Louisville Metro Police Department's strategies and processes for crowd control and how this relates to Louisville Metro's general fund budget.

- There were several questions regarding Civil Service testing and specialty unit assignments.
- There was a discussion regarding infractions of the Louisville Metro Police Department similar to the snowball incident and transparency with the public.
- There were several questions regarding the shooting investigation of several individuals that participated in the protests last summer.
- There were several questions regarding specific reforms that the Louisville Metro Police Department will implement from the Hillard Heintze recommendations.
- There were several questions regarding an investigation of the officer that struck an individual during an arrest.
- There were several questions regarding a recommendation from the Hillard Heintze report that references the Louisville Metro Police Department's Internal Affairs file system and potentially auditing this system.
