WHEREAS, Louisville has been recognized as a Compassionate City and has taken steps to help lift working families out of poverty, decrease income inequality, and boost our economy; and

WHEREAS, the Louisville Metro Council passed legislation, signed into law by Mayor Greg Fischer on January 2, 2015, whereby the minimum wage in Louisville was increased to $7.75 per hour beginning July 1, 2015, with continued increases of $8.25 per hour beginning on July 1, 2016, $9.00 per hour beginning July 1, 2017, and beginning July 1, 2018 and each subsequent year having the minimum wage increased in amounts corresponding to the previous calendar year's increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for the south urban region as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor or its successor index; and

WHEREAS, Louisville’s increase in the minimum wage is codified in LMCO Chapter 112; and WHEREAS, since the passage of amendments to LMCO Chapter 112 described above, Louisville’s unemployment rate has dropped; and

WHEREAS, Louisville believes that the increase in its minimum wage has greatly helped low would benefit all of Kentucky’s low income families and improve Kentucky’s economy.
