

PROCLAMATION

*To all whom these letters shall come, Greetings:
Know ye, that the Louisville Metro Council hereby honors and recognizes*

Alyssa Pollard

WHEREAS, Alyssa Pollard, a distinguished student at Ballard High School, has demonstrated exceptional academic excellence by being ranked 4th in her class and earning the honor of Valedictorian; and

WHEREAS, Alyssa has achieved a historic milestone as the first Girl Scout in Southwest Louisville to earn the prestigious Girl Scout Gold Award, the highest recognition in Girl Scouting; and

WHEREAS, her Gold Award project focused on advancing Social Emotional Learning for high school Special Education students, exemplifying both compassion and innovation in addressing critical educational needs; and

WHEREAS, Alyssa's dedication to service, leadership, and academic achievement reflects a profound commitment to improving the lives of others and strengthening her community; and

WHEREAS, her accomplishments bring great pride to her family, educators, peers, and the entire Southwest Louisville community;

NOW, THEREFORE, in recognition of their outstanding accomplishment,

We proudly recognize Alyssa Pollard for her outstanding achievements, leadership, and service to the community, and extend sincere congratulations and best wishes for her continued success in all future endeavors.

Done in Louisville,

This 25th day of June 2026

Fourteenth District Councilwoman Crystal Bast