

Mr. Blieden is the key executive of Butchertown Market and Butcher Block Properties. He's been in the real estate business since he was first licensed in 1980. Mr. Blieden has a passion for finding buildings in great locations that are in gross disrepair and bringing them back to their original splendor. He has received numerous awards and recognition for his preservation work and has been singled out by the city as one of the top innovators for Adaptive Reuse of Real Estate including the 2017 Business First Best Real Estate Adaptive Reuse Project for the Butcher Block properties